

CONTENTS

1. Introduction	1
2. Circumstances in which abortion was recommended	1
3. Number of abortion referrals	2
4. Comparison with national statistics	3
5. Action when referrals were turned down	4
6. Difficulties in arranging abortions	5
7. Doctors' view on services	6
8. Psychiatric referrals	6
9. Variations with age	7
10. Sex	7
11. Marital status and children	8
12. Religion	8
13. Abortion and contraceptive advice	9
14. Hospital regions	10
15. Illegitimacy and high parity births	12
16. Discussion	14
Summary	14
Appendices
The sample of general practitioners	16
The questionnaire used	19
Acknowledgements	24
References	24