

The British Journal of General Practice

October 1997

Volume 47 · Number 423

605 Research papers this month

Editorials

- 607 Your new-look Journal Alastair F Wright
608 Summative assessment of vocational training: to be required by law Denis Pereira Gray
610 Refining the MRCGP David Haslam

Original papers

- 613 Counsellors in primary care in Southampton: a questionnaire survey of their qualifications, working arrangements, and casemix Andrew Clark, John Hook and Kenneth Stein
618 Chronic debilitating fatigue in Irish general practice: a survey of general practitioners' experience
E Joe Fitzgibbon, Deirdre Murphy, Karen O'Shea and Cecily Kelleher
623 General practitioner teaching in the community: a study of their teaching experience and interest in undergraduate teaching in the future Jeremy Gray and Brian Fine
627 Predictors of the provision of intrapartum care by general practitioners: a five-year cohort study
Lindsay F P Smith
631 How can adolescents' health needs and concerns best be met? Rosemary Jones, Fiona Finlay, Neil Simpson and Tricia Kreitman
635 Factors affecting use of folic acid supplements in pregnant women in Glasgow Elizabeth McGovern, Hazel Moss, Gurmeet Grewal, Ann Taylor, Stein Bjornsson and Jill Pell

Brief reports

- 639 Thunderstorm-associated asthma: the effects on GP consultation S Hajat, S A Goubet and A Haines
643 Impact of an audiology clinic in one general practice K Khunti and M Carr
645 Why do we continue to take unnecessary smears? C B J Woodman, Judith Richardson and Martin Spence

Review article

- 647 Systematic reviews of bed rest and advice to stay active for acute low back pain Gordon Waddell, Gene Feder and Moishe Lewis

Discussion papers

- 653 Managing back pain in general practice — is osteopathy the new paradigm? Nefyn Williams
656 Mackenzies's puzzle — the cornerstone of teaching and research in general practice J Campbell Murdoch

Letters

665 Classified advertisements

The Back Pages

- 673-92 Analysis
plus News, International, Education, Miscellany and
A short history of socialized medicine, and Digest, Diary...

NEW
SECTION