

Contents

February Focus 74

EDITORIALS

Managing depression in primary care: it's not only what you do it's the way that you do it 76

Jed Boardman and Paul Walters

Learning specialist skills for a generalist discipline 79

Simon Gregory

ORIGINAL PAPERS

Initiation of antidepressant therapy: do patients follow the GP's prescription? 81

Erica CG van Geffen, Helga Gardarsdottir, Rolf van Hulten, Liset van Dijk, Antoine CG Egberts and Eibert R Heerdink

Factors influencing variation in prescribing of antidepressants by general practices in Scotland 88

Jill Morrison, Mary-Jane Anderson, Matt Sutton, Rosalia Munoz-Arroyo, Sara McDonald, Margaret Maxwell, Andrew Power, Michael Smith and Philip Wilson

Recorded quality of care for depression in general practice: an observational study 94

Sivatharan Vedavanam, Nicholas Steel, Joanne Broadbent, Susan Maisey and Amanda Howe

Developing a curriculum statement based on clinical practice: genetics in primary care 99

Sarah Burke, Melissa Martyn, Anna Stone, Catherine Bennett, Hywel Thomas and Peter Farndon

Web-based learning strategies in combination with published guidelines to change practice of primary care professionals 104

Jean Robson

Performance and views of examiners in the Applied Knowledge Test for the nMRCGP licensing examination 110

A Niroshan Siriwardena, Hilton Dixon, Carol Blow, Bill Irish and Paul Milne

Predictability of persistent frequent attendance: a historic 3-year cohort study 114

Frans ThM Smits, Henk J Brouwer, Henk CP van Weert, Aart H Schene and Gerben ter Riet

SYSTEMATIC REVIEW

Psychological treatment of depression in primary care: a meta-analysis 120

Pim Cuijpers, Annemieke van Straten, Anneke van Schaik and Gerhard Andersson

JOHN HUNT LECTURE

The epitaph of profession 128

Donald M Berwick

Letters 132

Classified 145

The Back Pages

- 133 Viewpoint — The cognitive therapy paradox, Sara Dryburgh
- 134 Essay — The Incas: a journey through history and spirituality, Sonia Grover and Edin Lakasing
- 135 Essay — New Year's Day, Robert Scully
- 136 Essay — Heartsink relationships: paradox as paradigm, Neil Grant and Trevor Gibbs
- 138 Essay — The health of Britain's Polish migrants: a suitable case for history taking and examination, Edin Lakasing and Zul A Mirza
- 139 Strictly Doctoring, Mike Fitzpatrick
- 140 Essay — A rotation in O&G as a GP specialist trainee: what can you expect? Sivashankari Thiagamoorthy
- 141 Viewpoint — The emotional bank account, the consultation, and the credit crunch, Nick Wooding
- 142 Essay — Advice issued by professional homeopathic associations: a survey of websites, Edzard Ernst
- 144 The peril of the light, Emyr Gravell