Volume 29

Number 207

October 1979

Editorials

The management of hypertension in general practice
College Appeal
A System of Training for General Practice—second edition

Hypertension in general practice

The management of hypertension—a survey of opinions among general practitioners
The management of hypertension—a study of records in general practice
Screening for hypertension—some practical problems
The treatment of hypertension with propranolol and bendrofluazide

Why not?

Why not standing orders for general practice?

Balint reassessed

Behavioural science in general practice

Primary care around the world

Primary care in Norway

Suicide

The hard way out