The British Journal of General Practice

In the Journal this month

394 Diphtheria revisited  Michael J Martin

395 Aspirin and acute myocardial infarction: clarifying the message
Jonathan Deeks, Ian Watt and Nick Freemantle

396 Family practice in the United States of America — a new dawn?
Sarah Purdy and Graham Rich

399 Use of general practitioner beds in Leicestershire community hospitals
J Tomlinson, N T Raymond, D Field and J L Botha

405 Membership of the Royal College of General Practitioners by assessment:
attitudes of members and non-members in one faculty area
Maureen Baker and Mike Pringle

409 Women’s knowledge of taking oral contraceptive pills correctly and of emergency contraception: effect of providing information leaflets in general practice  Lindsay F P Smith and Michael J Whitfield

415 Practice nurses’ workload and consultation patterns  L Anne Jeffreys,
Andrew L Clark and Marek Koperski

419 How complete is influenza immunization coverage? A study in 75 nursing and residential homes for elderly people  Meirion R Evans and E Jane Wilkinson

423 Addressing the patient’s agenda in the reorganization of antenatal and infant health care: experience in one general practice  John Mellor and Naomi Chambers

427 Bereavement: a protocol for primary care  Rodger Charlton and Elaine Dolman

433 Primary care and the maelstrom of health care reform in the United States of America  Peter Curtis

439 Letters

447 Book and video review

451 Classified advertisements

RCGP Connection pull-out magazine included for members

ISSN 0960-1643