Research papers this month

Editorials

695 Health needs assessment in primary care: a study of understanding and experience in three English districts Joanne Jordan and John Wright

696 Nurse practitioners in general practice: an inevitable progression? Marek Koperski

Original papers

699 An evaluation of a nurse-led ear care service in primary care: benefits and costs Margaret Fall, Stephen Walters, Susan Read, Mark Deverill, Mark Lutman, Philip Milner and Rosemary Rodgers

705 The general practitioner, the drug misuser, and the alcohol misuser: major differences in general practitioner activity, therapeutic commitment, and ‘shared care’ proposals Ann Deehan, Colin Taylor and John Strang

715 Teenagers’ views on the general practice consultation and provision of contraception C Donovan, A R Mellonby, L D Jacobson, B Taylor and J H Tripp

719 Reducing reconsultations for acute lower respiratory tract illness: a randomized controlled study of patients in primary care J T Macfarlane, W F Holmes and R M Macfarlane

723 Scottish general practice registrars — their views on psychotherapy training Elaine C Ogg, Rhiannon Pugh and T Stuart Murray

Brief reports

727 A survey of infertility practices in primary care in Scotland V L Souter, G Penney and D R Gorman

729 Clinical guidelines and the management of hypertension: a between-practice and guideline comparison Tom Fahey and Tim J Peters

731 Are patients who present late with cancer registered with low-referring practices? Julia Hippisley-Cox, Carolyn Hardy, Mike Pringle, Katherine Fielding, Robin Carlisle, Clair Chilvers and Anthony Avery

Review article

733 A systematic review of empirical research into ethics in general practice Wendy A Rogers

Discussion papers

739 Communication about risk — dilemmas for general practitioners Adrian Edwards and Lindsay Prior

743 Effective audit in general practice: a method for systematically developing audit protocols containing evidence-based review criteria Robin C Fraser, Kamlesh Khunti, Richard Baker and Mayur Lakhani

Letters

747

Classified advertisements

755

The Back Pages

761-80 Evidence-based medicine MRCPG International, Indonesian smog News, Miscellany, Socialized medicine Digest — General practice in an Information Age plus Residential care, Collaboration, and more... Diary

NEW SECTION