

ANNOUNCING

RESEARCH CONFERENCE

Promoting excellence in primary care and inspiring researchers and authors of the future

The launch of our Research Conference is a remarkable opportunity for researchers to present their work in a constructive, peer-reviewed environment, to hear from leading figures in primary care research, and to acquire new skills in writing, appraisal, and presentation. The conference will contain a unique combination of research presentations with moderated feedback, workshops on many aspects of writing and publishing research, and keynote presentations from leaders in the field. We hope you can join us!

March 2018

Hosted by the Royal College of General Practitioners
30 Euston Square, London NW1 2FB

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Practising GPs with an interest in developing research skills
- Early-stage clinical academics in primary care
- More senior researchers wishing to hone their presentation, writing, and critical appraisal skills

WHY SHOULD I ATTEND?

- A unique conference offering opportunities for researchers to acquire new skills
- Meet the editors of the BJGP and BJGP Open
- Learn more about critical appraisal and peer review