

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Editorials

- 269 Satisfaction with the NHS: what is it and can we measure it?
Brian Keeble and Ann Keeble
- 270 Prescribing research: PACT to the future
J.A. Spencer and T.D. van Zwanenberg

Original papers

- 273 Randomized controlled trial of anti-smoking advice by nurses in general practice D. Sanders, G. Fowler, D. Mant, A. Fuller, L. Jones and J. Marziller
- 277 Diagnosis and management of female urinary incontinence in general practice Jacqueline V. Jolleys
- 280 London general practitioners' involvement with HIV infection
Michael B. King
- 284 HIV infection and Scottish general practice: knowledge and attitudes *Simon A. Naji, Ian T. Russell, Christopher J.W.
Foy, Morris Gallagher, Tim J. Rhodes and Michele P. Moore*
- 289 Full-time women general practitioners — an invaluable asset
Judith Hooper

Review article

- 292 Treatment of hay fever Stuart F. Wood

Discussion paper

- 297 Practice activity analysis: collaboration between general practitioners and a family practitioner committee
L. Peter, J.B. Tate and P.J. Catchpole

College examination

- 300 The MRCGP examination

301 Letters

306 Book and video review

307 Digest

308 Infectious diseases update

