

The British Journal of General Practice

Editorials

- 222 The importance of the generalist His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales

- 223 Health promotion: time for a new philosophy?
Michael P Kelly and Bruce G Charlton

Original papers

- 227 Outcome measures for primary health care: what are the research priorities? Allen Hutchinson and Penelope Fowler

- 232 Problems of drug abuse, HIV and AIDS: the burden of care in one general practice P J M Ronald, J C Witcomb, J R Robertson, J J K Roberts, P C Shishodia and A Whittaker

- 236 Social indicators of health needs for general practice: a simpler approach J L Hopton, J G R Howie and A M D Porter

- 241 Evaluation of urine sampling technique: bacterial contamination of samples from women students Anders Baerheim, Asbjørn Digraanes and Steinar Hunskaar

- 244 Acute herpes zoster and postherpetic neuralgia: effects of acyclovir and outcome of treatment with amitriptyline
David Bowsher

Review article

- 247 Determinants of outcome in smoking cessation A S Lennox

Discussion paper

- 253 Intermittent self catheterization for patients with urinary incontinence or difficulty emptying the bladder P Oakeshott and G M Hunt

Personal view

- 256 The heart of the College Michael Drury

- 258 Letters

- 262 Book and video review

- 263 Classified advertisements

RCGP Connection pull-out magazine included for members

40TH ANNIVERSARY

1952-1992

ISSN 0960-1643