

The British Journal of General Practice

Editorials

Original papers

Discussion paper

241 In the Journal this month

242 Standard setting in the Netherlands: impact of the human factor on guideline development Siewert Thomas

243 Fraternizing with fringe medicine Thurstan B Brewin

245 Factors associated with outcome in unaided smoking cessation, and a comparison of those who have never tried to stop with those who have A S Lennox and R J Taylor

251 Arranging hospital admission for acutely ill patients: problems encountered by general practitioners Clare Jenkins, Jenny Bartholomew, Fiona Gelder and David Morrell

255 Provision of obstetric care by general practitioners in the south western region of England Lindsay F P Smith

259 Consultation rates and incidence of intercurrent morbidity among patients with chronic disease in general practice F G Schellevis, E H van de Lisdonk, J van der Velden, S H J L Hoogbergen, J Th M van Eijk and C van Weel

263 Annual assessment of patients aged 75 years and over: general practitioners' and practice nurses' views and experiences Carolyn A Chew, David Wilkin and Caroline Glendenning

268 General practice screening clinic for Bangladeshi families Elizabeth C Lee

271 General practitioners' reasons for not attending a higher professional education course John Pitts and Stephen Vincent

275 Antidepressant prescribing: a comparison between general practitioners and psychiatrists M P Kerr

277 Lay evaluation of health and healthy lifestyles: evidence from three studies Kathryn Backett, Charlie Davison and Kenneth Mullen

281 Letters

285 Book and video review

287 Classified advertisements

RCGP Connection pull-out magazine included for members