

The British Journal of General Practice

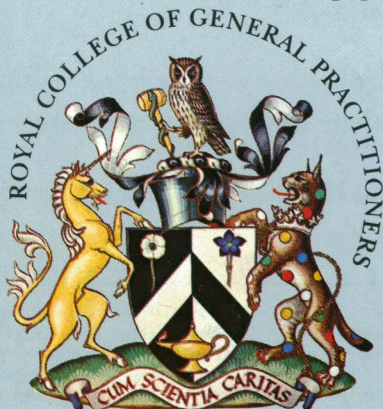

Editorials

Original papers

Review article

Discussion paper

- 485 In the Journal this month
- 486 Prevention of end stage renal failure: an achievable goal?
Hugh S Cairns and Robin G Woolfson
- 487 Undergraduate and postgraduate medical education: bridging the divide
David Hannay
- 489 Contribution of academic departments of general practice to undergraduate teaching, and their plans for curriculum development
Louise A Robinson, John A Spencer and Roger H Jones
- 493 Prevalence of asthma and asthma-like symptoms in young adults living in three East Anglian towns
D Jarvis, E Lai, C Luczynska, S Chinn and P Burney
- 499 Consultation patterns in a community survey of men with benign prostatic hyperplasia
R J Simpson, R J Lee, W M Garraway, D King and I McIntosh
- 503 Evaluation of the use of brief screening instruments for dementia, depression and problem drinking among elderly people in general practice
Steve Iliffe, Susan Mitchley, Mairi Gould and Andrew Haines
- 509 Repeat consultations after antibiotic prescribing for respiratory infection: a study in one general practice
Peter Davey, Danny Rutherford, Barbara Graham, Bill Lynch and Mo Malek
- 515 Reported management of patients with sore throat in Australian general practice
Nicholas F Carr, Stephen G Wales and Doris Young
- 519 What happens to patients following open access gastroscopy? An outcome study from general practice
A P S Hungin, P R Thomas, M G Bramble, W A Corbett, B R Contractor, D C Berridge and G Cann
- 523 Role of primary care in the prevention of malignant melanoma
Neil Johnson, David Mant, Julia Newton and Patricia L Yudkin
- 527 The relationship between primary care and psychiatry: an opportunity for change
B G Ferguson and M A Varnam
- 532 Letters
- 537 Book and video review
- 539 Classified advertisements

RCGP Connection pull-out magazine included for members