

The British Journal of General Practice

Editorials

Original papers

Discussion paper

- 541 In the Journal this month
- 542 Education and training for general practice: Royal College of General Practitioners' policy statement W McN Styles
- 543 Polarities in medicine Joseph Herman
- 545 Measuring functional health status in primary care using the COOP-WONCA charts: acceptability, range of scores, construct validity, reliability and sensitivity to change Paul Kinnersley, Tim Peters and Nigel Stott
- 551 Exploratory study of general practitioners' orientations to general practice and responses to change Roland Petchey
- 557 Fundholders' referral patterns and perceptions of service quality in hospital provision of elective general surgery David K Whynes and Geoffrey Reed
- 561 Glaucoma screening clinic in general practice: prevalence of occult disease, and resource implications James H Sheldrick and Andrew J H Sharp
- 567 Annual assessments of patients aged 75 years and over: views and experiences of elderly people Carolyn A Chew, David Wilkin and Caroline Glendinning
- 571 Longitudinal trends in prescribing for elderly patients: two surveys four years apart Roger H Rumble and Kevin Morgan
- 577 Near patient testing in general practice: attitudes of general practitioners and practice nurses, and quality assurance procedures carried out Sean Hilton, Elizabeth Rink, Joy Fletcher, Bonnie Sibbald, Paul Freeling, Ala Szczepura, Carol Davies and John Stilwell
- 583 Do patients read health promotion posters in the waiting room? A study in one general practice K Ward and K Hawthorne
- 587 Detection and prevention of treatable visual failure in general practice: room for improvement? Andrew Fink, Lesley Wright and Richard Wormald
- 590 Letters
- 594 Book and video review
- 595 Classified advertisements

RCGP Connection pull-out magazine included for members

ISSN 0960-1643