

The British Journal of General Practice

Editorials

Original papers

Review article

Discussion paper

- 1 In the Journal this month
- 2 Should medical students learn more about management?
Karen Fairhurst, Ian Stanley and Chris Griffiths
- 3 Living up to expectations? Alastair F Wright
- 5 Readiness for lifestyle advice: self-assessments of coronary risk prior to screening in the British family heart study T M Marteau, A-L Kinmonth, S Pyke, S G Thompson and the family heart study group
- 11 Management of angina pectoris in general practice: a questionnaire survey of general practitioners M M Gandhi, F C Lampe and D A Wood
- 15 General practitioners' tacit and stated policies in the prescription of lipid lowering agents J St B T Evans, C Harries, I Dennis and J Dean
- 21 Use of blood tests in general practice: a collaborative study in eight European countries P Leurquin, V van Casteren, J de Maeseneer and the Eurosentinel study group
- 27 Health care sought and received by men with urinary symptoms, and their views on prostatectomy D J W Hunter, C M McKee, N A Black and C F B Sanderson
- 31 One counsellor, two practices: report of a pilot scheme in Cambridgeshire Ronald Speirs and J A Jewell
- 35 Practice nurse workload before and after the introduction of the 1990 contract for general practitioners Arthur Hibble
- 39 Primary care management of acute herpes zoster: systematic review of evidence from randomized controlled trials Tim Lancaster, Christopher Silagy and Stephen Gray
- 47 Audit as part of summative assessment of vocational training Ivan J Benett and Jacky Hayden
- 50 Letters
- 55 Information for authors and readers
- 56 Book and video review
- 58 Classified advertisements

RCGP Connection pull-out magazine included for members

