

The British Journal of General Practice

Editorials

- 513 In the Journal this month
- 515 Research in general practice: who is calling the tune? Tom O'Dowd
- 516 Research general practices Denis Pereira Gray
- 517 Investigation in general practice of patients with suspected heart failure: how should the essential echocardiographic service be delivered?
M C Colquhoun, Colin Waine, M J Monaghan, A D Struthers and P G Mills

Original papers

- 520 Factors that influence the patient centredness of a consultation
Susan A T Law and Nicky Britten
- 525 Development of a questionnaire to measure patients' satisfaction with general practitioners' services Sarah Grogan, Mark Conner, David Willits and Paul Norman
- 531 Annual night visiting rates in 129 general practices in one family health services authority: association with patient and general practice characteristics F Azeem Majeed, Derek G Cook, Sean Hilton, Jan Poloniecki and Adeline Hagen
- 537 Assessment of the completeness and accuracy of computer medical records in four practices committed to recording data on computer
Mike Pringle, Pat Ward and Clair Chilvers
- 542 Ebeltoft project: baseline data from a five-year randomized, controlled, prospective health promotion study in a Danish population
Torsten Lauritzen, Charlotte Leboeuf-Yde, Inga Marie Lunde and Karen-Dorthe Bach Nielsen
- 548 Implementation of quality assurance and medical audit: general practitioners' perceived obstacles and requirements Richard Grol and Michel Wensing

Discussion papers

- 553 Increasing the number of drugs available over the counter: arguments for and against Colin P Bradley and Christine Bond
- 557 Clinical practice and medical research: bridging the divide between the two cultures Penny Owen

562 Letters

566 Book and video review

568 Classified advertisements

RCGP Connection pull-out magazine included for members

