

The British Journal of General Practice

Editorials	3	Structured management in primary care of patients with epilepsy Patrick White
	4	GP 2000: a general practitioner for the new millennium Alastair F Wright
Original papers	7	Women with bleeding in the first 20 weeks of pregnancy: value of general practice ultrasound in detecting fetal heart movement Christopher B Everett and Elizabeth Preece
	11	Epilepsy monitoring and advice recorded: general practitioners' views, current practice and patients' preferences L Ridsdale, D Robins, A Fitzgerald, S Jeffery, L McGee and the epilepsy care evaluation group
	15	Evaluation of the suitability of weekly peak expiratory flow rate measurements in monitoring annual decline in lung function among patients with asthma and chronic bronchitis P R S Tirimanna, J J den Otter, C P van Schayck, C L A van Herwaarden, H Folgering and C van Weel
	20	Setting standards of prescribing performance in primary care: use of a consensus group of general practitioners and the application of standards to practices in the north of England D N Bateman, M Eccles, M Campbell, J Soutter, S J Roberts and J M Smith
	26	Use of the consultation satisfaction questionnaire to examine patients' satisfaction with general practitioners and community nurses: reliability, replicability and discriminant validity Brenda C Poulton
	33	What do deans of medical schools and heads of departments of general practice think of preregistration rotations in general practice? Joe Wilton
Brief report	35	University departments of general practice: a changing scene David R Hannay and Peter D Campion
Review article	37	Care of patients with epilepsy in the community: will new initiatives address old problems? A K Thapar
Discussion paper	43	Improving continuing medical education and addressing the challenge of instituting reaccreditation Richard Westcott
	47	Letters
	51	Book and video review
	55	Information for authors and readers
	56	Classified advertisements

RCGP Connection pull-out magazine included for members

