

The British Journal of General Practice

Editorials

Original papers

Discussion paper

James Mackenzie lecture 1995

- 559 Situations vacant: doctors required to provide care for people with learning disability Gwyn Howells
- 60 Complementary medicine — doing more good than harm? E Ernst
- 63 Investigations of whether on-site general practice counsellors have an impact on psychotropic drug prescribing rates and costs: Bonnie Sibbald, Julia Addington-Hall, Douglas Brenneman and Paul Freeling
- 69 What do general practitioners and community mental health teams talk about? Descriptive analysis of liaison meetings in general practice Stephen Midgley, Tom Burns and Carol Garland
- 73 One-year prospective study of cases of suspected acute myocardial infarction managed by urban and rural general practitioners Andrew W Murphy, D McCafferty, J Dowling and Gerard Bury
- 77 Prevalence, aetiology and management of heart failure in general practice Frances S Mair, Terence S Crowley and Peter E Bundred
- 81 Human resource management in general practice: survey of current practice John Newton, Jo Hunt and John Stirling
- 87 Anti-smoking advice in general practice consultations: general practitioners' attitudes, reported practice and perceived problems Tim Coleman and Andrew Wilson
- 92 Attitudes of general practitioners to caring for people with learning disability M Kerr, F Dunstan and A Thapar
- 95 Changes in general practice organization: survey of general practitioners' views on the 1990 contract and fundholding Brenda Leese and Nick Bosanquet
- 101 Views of pregnant women on the involvement of general practitioners in maternity care Lindsay F P Smith
- 105 The biopsychosocial model of general practice: rhetoric or reality? Christopher Dowrick, Carl May, Michael Richardson and Peter Bundred
- 109 Chronic disease or physical disability? The role of the general practitioner David Memel
- 115 The science of perpetual change Andrew Haines
- 121 Letters
- 126 Book and video review
- 127 Classified advertisements

RCGP Connection pull-out magazine included for members