

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 27

Number 175

February 1977

Editorials

Compulsory re-examination in general practice
European Union of General Practitioners
Annual reports from family practitioner committees

Prescribing in general practice

Adverse penicillin reactions in the records of a general practice 1973 to 1975

General-practitioner prescribing

Medical audit

Looking after diabetics in general practice: a trainee project

Predicting outcome in threatened abortion

The prognostic value of human placental lactogen levels in threatened abortion in general practice

Complications of whooping cough

Whooping cough—a retrospective study of hospital admissions

Primary care around the world

Primary care in Transkei

Investigations

'Microstix'—a new diagnostic aid

Records

A contraception record card for use in general practice