

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 27

Number 176

March 1977

Editorials

Determining the curriculum

Urinary tract infections in general practice

Educational methods

The contribution of an adult educationalist to a trainers' group

Continuing education for general practice: a learning system

The opinions of postgraduate tutors on continuing education for general practitioners

Self care

Users and non-users of doctors—implications for self-care

Helping the handicapped

University education for the physically disabled

Practice organization

Reviewing an appointment system

Disease in families

Familial ovarian carcinoma

Familial systemic lupus erythematosus—a case report

Prescribing in general practice

The relationship between psychoneurotic status and psychoactive drug prescription in general practice