

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 27

Number 177

April 1977

Editorial

A carrot not a stick

College evidence

Evidence to the Royal Commission on the NHS

Deputizing services

The workload of a commercial deputizing service

Contraception

Recurrent pregnancies during oral contraception

Health education

Patients knowledge of heart disease in general practice

Education

One trainee's clinical experience

Classification of health problems

Classifying disease in general practice

A comparison of three systems of classifying presenting problems in general practice