

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 27

Number 181

August 1977

Editorial

Brain failure

Butterworth Gold Medal Essay 1976

Quality of care in general practice: can it be assessed?

Medical audit

Monitoring the dose of digoxin

Computers in general practice

The therapeutic effect of taking a patient's history by computer

Occupational hazards

Risks to trawler fishermen in Orkney waters

Patients on holiday

Holidaymakers in a seaside town

Obesity in general practice

Ten-year follow-up of obesity

The anorectic and hypotensive effect of fenfluramine in obesity