

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 27

Number 182

September 1977

Editorial

Age-sex registers

Records in general practice

Recording family and social history

A simple problem orientated record card for general practice

Audit of a general practice

The cost and advantages of establishing an age-sex register

Medical audit

An audit of the care of diabetics in one general practice

Collective research in general practice

Influenza

Use of time

The length of consultations in general practice

Child care

Child care in the new towns in the UK

Attempted suicide

Deliberate self-poisoning: implications for psychotropic drug prescribing in general practice