

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 27

Number 184

November 1977

Editorials

Silver jubilee
The Pill
Research awards for trainees
Number 15 Princes Gate

Founding letter

The Steering Committee

Silver jubilee

“What happened was this”
Time and change

Prescribing in general practice

Doctors' anxieties in prescribing

Educational assessment

Trainee learning

Primary care around the world

A British view of American family practice

College services

Recent theses from general practice
Services for members

Urinary infection in general practice

Symptomatic urinary infection in childhood:
presentation during a four-year study in general practice and significance and outcome at seven years

Clinical method in general practice

Coeliac artery compression syndrome:
can we believe our ears?

General-practitioner obstetrics

Obstetric hospitals and general-practitioner maternity units—the statistical record