

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 29

Number 205

August 1979

Editorials

Damages — one measure of a general practitioner's responsibility

Trainee projects

William Pickles Lecture 1979

Now and then

Trainee projects

Trainee research in South-East Scotland

Patients' expectations and intention to self-medicate

A study of repeat prescription cards in a general practice

Clinical work in general practice

Anticoagulant care in one urban group practice

Why not?

Why not write English?

The patient's point of view

How much do patients know? A multiple choice question paper for patients in the waiting room

Health needs

The need for health care — a pilot survey with general practice

Published by Update Publications Ltd

ISSN 0035-8797