

W/1
J0 955

C.2

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 30

Number 217

August 1980

Editorials

Terminal care in general practice
Chair of General Practice at Zagreb
Hypertension in primary care

William Pickles Lecture

A job half done

Terminal care

National terminal care policy
Setting up terminal care units

The team

The social and occupational characteristics of attached and employed nurses in general practice
A comparison of the activities and opinions of attached and employed nurses in general practice
A broader training for medical receptionists

Why not?

Why not screen for hypertension?

The consultation

Factors contributing to the length of general practice consultations

Published by Update Publications Ltd

ISSN 0035-8797