

W1
J0 955

C12

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 30

Number 218

September 1980

Editorials

Booklets for patients

The care of children

Undergraduate Prize Essay

Patient participation

Why not?

Morbidity survey

The patient's point of view

Packaging drugs

Booklets for patients

Research in general practice

Education for Co-operation in Health and Social Work

Teaching parents about child health using a practice booklet

Paediatric primary care in Inner London

An examination of the prescribed therapeutic experience of five-year-olds in general practice

A handicapped child means a handicapped family

Professional attitudes to patient participation groups: an exploratory study

Patient participation in primary health care

Why not keep community clinics?

Second National Morbidity Survey

The 'iceberg' of illness and 'trivial' consultations

Hazards from the use of child-resistant drug containers

Published by Update Publications Ltd

ISSN 0035-8797