

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 31

Number 229

August 1981

Editorials

Official statistics and women's health

Attitudes to pregnancy

Medicines Surveillance Centre

A new animal

Patient participation

Family practice: the renaissance is over

General practice and the hospital

Whooping cough in nursery school children

Whooping cough

Characteristics of women recruited to a long-term study of the sequelae of induced abortion

Women's health

Psychotropic prescribing. What am I doing?

Prescribing in general practice

Delegation to nurses in general practice

The team

Towards the reality of the primary health care team:
an educational approach

Family care

A parenting group in general practice

Why not file in family folders?

Why not be a family doctor?

Published by Update Publications Ltd

ISSN 0035-8797