

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 31

Number 231

October 1981

Editorials

Trainees and training
Suicide and deliberate self-injury
The Stuart Fellow

Obstetric care

The economics of specialist and general practitioner maternity units

Women's health

Provision of rubella immunization in general practitioner family planning services
How women felt about their sterilization—a follow-up of 368 patients in a general practice

Medical education

Can teachers cross continents? Experiences in Sri Lanka

The team

Psychiatric services in primary care: specialized or not?

Prevention in practice

An evaluation of recorded information about preventive measures in 38 practices

Communications in practice

The British Telecom radiopaging service in general practice

Why not?

Why not reconsider acupuncture?

Published by Update Publications Ltd

ISSN 0035-8797