

THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF GENERAL PRACTITIONERS
SCOTTISH OFFICE

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 32

Number 244

November 1982

Editorial

Secondary prevention of myocardial infarction: an uncertain feeling

Child care in general practice

Consulting behaviour in a group of young families

Medical education

Teaching medical interviewing in vocational training

Infectious diseases

A measles epidemic in a circumscribed community

Short report

The family medicine cabinet

Terminal care

The care of patients dying from cancer

For discussion

Can patients influence health decisions?

The London University Lecture in General Practice

Doing better, feeling worse: family medicine in an academic setting

Why not?

Why not sports medicine in general practice?

Published by Update Publications Ltd

ISSN 0035-8797