

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 33

Number 251

June 1983

Editorials

Second George Swift lecture

Original papers

History of medicine

RCGP Spring meeting

Counselling and the doctor
Livingston: an enduring concept
57 varieties

Myalgic encephalomyelitis—report of an epidemic
Sporadic myalgic encephalomyelitis in a rural practice
Fatal but clinically undiagnosed tuberculosis
Death in practice

Urinary tract infection in children:
a survey of management

Family medicine—at a loss for words

A counsellor in general practice: a one-year survey

Treatment of heroin addiction

Dr William Johnston (1846–1900) of Leicester—an unknown Victorian general practitioner

A wife's eye view

Published by Update Publications Ltd

ISSN 0035-8797