

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 34

Number 268

November 1984

Editorials

Maternal morality: an historical audit
The Irish College of general practitioners
William Pickles

Original papers

Smoking and malignant disease: a general practice study
Contraceptive attitudes and practice in women choosing sterilization
Response of patients and doctors to the 1983 'Pill scare'
Episiotomy: who gets one and why
The reactions of patients to a video camera in the consulting room

Review Articles

Latest views on Pill prescribing
A survey of psychiatrists in primary care: the silent growth of a new service

Short report

Death certificates in Jerusalem: sources of information about cause of death

News and Announcements

Letters

Primary care bookshelf

Classified advertisements