

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 36

Number 282

January 1986

Editorials

Divine healing: the Christian view
Outcomes research in general practice

Original papers

Upper gastrointestinal endoscopy — a view from general practice
Attitudes of general practitioners towards premenstrual symptoms and those who suffer from them
Contraceptive care and family planning in an urban general practice
Use of management-by-objective for the case finding and treatment of hypertension
A medical record folder for the Lloyd George envelope
Current involvement of university departments of general practice in the final qualifying examinations of medical schools in the UK

Review article

Postherpetic neuralgia

For debate

The case for developmental gerontology — Thompson's octad

Letters

News and reports

Primary care bookshelf

Classified advertisements and notices