

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 36

Number 283

February 1986

Editorials

Relative support groups

The third national study of morbidity statistics from general practice

Delay in diagnosing asthma — is the nature of general practice to blame?

Original papers

The emergency bed service in London — who uses it?

An opportunistic approach to rubella screening in general practice

Model for the integration of community psychiatry and primary care

Summarizing and coding case records: can the task be delegated?

A method of assessment of teaching practices and trainers by their trainees

For debate

Community health initiatives and their relationship to general practice

Review articles

Night cough and general practice research

Wheezing in young children: problems of measurement and management

Letters

News and reports

Primary care bookshelf

Classified advertisements and notices