

THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF GENERAL PRACTITIONERS
SCOTTISH OFFICE

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 36

Number 285

April 1986

Editorials

Prescribing — future possibilities

Prescriber's Journal — the first 25 years

Original papers

Repeat prescribing: a study prior to the imposition of the limited list

General practitioners' attitudes towards the limited list

Relationship between increasing prescription changes and consumption in groups not exempt from charges

Maternity services: the consumer's view

Smoking in pregnancy — a health education problem

Family practitioner committee records — a neglected resource 2. Drawing the profile of an area

For debate

Drug prescribing: some patients' views

Would Balint have joined the British Holistic Medical Association?

Letters

News and reports

Primary care bookshelf

Classified advertisements and notices

ISSN 0035-8797