

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Volume 36

Number 289

August 1986

Editorials

General practitioners and hospitals

The specialist contribution to the care of the terminally ill patient: support or substitution

Pharmacists and primary care

William Pickles Lecture 1986

The crucible

Original papers

Three-day and seven-day treatment in acute otitis media: a double-blind antibiotic trial

Casualty and surgical services in Perthshire general practitioner hospitals 1954-84

The context and content of community hospital admissions

A survey of psychotropic drug prescribing

Aspects of stoma care in general practice

A computerized audit of a screening programme to establish rubella immunity

For debate

What is the role of the psychiatrist in primary care?

Tobacco and ethics

Letters

News and reports

Primary care bookshelf

Classified advertisements and notices