UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND Brisbane, Australia

CHAIR OF COMMUNITY PRACTICE

Applicants must be medical practitioners registrable in Queensland and should, at a minimum, possess the FRACGP or equivalent. They should have a wide experience in the broad spectrum of general practice as well as specific interests in one or more defined areas. They must be prepared to continue general or primary care practice for 2 or 3 sessions per week and should possess demonstrable administrative skills. Experience in and aptitude for the teaching of general practice are vital, with previous involvement with undergraduate medical students highly desirable, as is expertise in curriculum development and methods of teaching and assessment. Evidence of high standards and strong interest in research is essential.

This Chair is within the Department of Social & Preventive Medicine; the Community Practice staff establishment is currently this advertising Chair, 2 Senior Lecturers and one half-time Senior Lecturer.

The appointee will be responsible for the teaching of community practice to 4th year medical students, and of general practice to 5th year students, and would be expected to develop and foster programmes of research in the discipline. He/she should also be prepared to assume responsibility as Head of Department as required.

Salary: $A58,348 per annum, plus a clinical loading of $A10,433 p.a.

Closing date: 30 November 1986. (Please quote reference 38286).

Additional information and application forms are available from the Secretary General, Association of Commonwealth Universities (Appts), 36 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0PF.

The University of Queensland is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

FISON'S Pharmaceuticals

INDUSTRIAL APPOINTMENT

UNIT MEDICAL OFFICER

Fisons, Holmes Chapel, Cheshire

Fisons Pharmaceutical Division is seeking to appoint a part-time unit medical officer (U.M.O.) to carry out duties for 3 hours per week. The unit is the main chemical synthetic and pharmaceutical production facility of the Division and employs some 700 people.

The job holder would operate within the framework of a comprehensive occupational health service staffed by specialist occupational health doctors and nursing staff. The U.M.O. will be responsible for assessment and advice on capacity to work after sickness and monitoring of special risk groups in the workforce. The job will also involve clinical investigation of occupational problems from time to time. The job would be most suitable for someone with some up to date training in occupational health or someone who is interested in improving their knowledge of this subject. A commitment to first aid training will also be needed. Remuneration is at B.M.A. rates.

Persons interested in this job should apply in writing, enclosing a CV, to Dr A. J. M. Slovak, Consultant Occupational Physician, Fisons Pharmaceutical Division, Derby Road, Loughborough, Leicestershire LE11 0BB.
