

LETTER FROM A
GENERAL PRACTITIONER

'An absolute revelation to me... I could identify my own problems and those of many of my patients in general practice.'

'Marvellous - profound, comprehensive, far better than anything else I know explaining psychoanalytic-family concepts to a popular audience... If all my patients would read this book, they'd become far more effective patients and I'd become a far more effective family therapist.'

JOURNAL OF MARITAL AND FAMILY THERAPY

'Excellent introduction to the ideas of the object relations theorists and structural family therapists... comprehensive, highly readable and often amusing... a book I would recommend to the layman and the trainee therapist alike.'

JOURNAL OF PSYCHOSOMATIC RESEARCH

'Warrants serious study by all mental health professionals... a most unusual treat'

J. WATSON,

Professor of Psychiatry, Guy's Hospital Medical School, for EGO

'Monumental... extraordinarily comprehensive... we all have something to learn from this synthesis... It is fun, the cartoons are superb.'

J. BYNG-HALL,

Chairman, Institute of Family Therapy (London) and Consultant Psychiatrist, Tavistock Clinic, for the
TAVISTOCK CLINIC GAZETTE
