

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Editorials

- 49 Bacterial vaginosis E.G. Buckley
 50 Living without health — a challenge to patient and doctor
J. Herman
 51 Diagnosis and management of problem patients in general practice
John Cohen

Original papers

- 52 General practitioners and alternative medicine
Eileen Anderson and Peter Anderson 56 Non-specific (anaerobic) vaginitis: relevance of clinical and laboratory studies in a practice population
M.C. Kelsey, G.K. Mann, A.M. Bangham and J. Milnthorpe
 59 Clinical prediction of Gardnerella vaginalis in general practice
T.C. O'Dowd and R.R. West
 62 The red eye: a general practice survey Andrew Wilson
 65 Who cares for the patient with diabetes? Presentation and follow-up in seven Southampton practices P.J. Burrows, P.J. Gray,
A-L. Kinmonth, D.J. Payton, G.A. Walpole, R.J. Walton, D.
Wilson and G. Woodbine
 70 Imported malaria in the UK: advice given by general practitioners to British residents travelling to malaria endemic areas
Harry Campbell
 73 Alcohol consumption in pregnancy — a health education problem
Agnes McKnight and Desmond Merrett

Review article

- 77 Acupuncture for some common disorders: a review of evaluative research C.A. Vincent and P.H. Richardson

82 Letters

87 Primary care bookshelf

89 News

96 Classified advertisements and notices

