

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Editorials

- 97 Hospitals for the mentally handicapped — run down or reform?
David Livingstone
- 98 Preventive care of the elderly Denis Pereira Gray
- 99 The College replies to Government

Original papers

- 100 A simple scoring system for evaluating symptoms, history and urine dipstick testing in the diagnosis of urinary tract infection
F.F. Dobbs and D.M. Fleming
- 105 Audit of serum theophylline concentrations in patients from general practice J.C. Howard
- 107 Upper respiratory tract infection: predisposing factors and duration of symptoms in patients over 12 years of age
S.P. Bullimore
- 109 Rural-urban variations in service provision for elderly people
Ianthe D. Fordyce and David J. Hunter
- 112 A survey of the management of psychosocial illness in general practice in Manchester Carl R. Whitehouse
- 116 Epilepsy in a Doncaster practice: audit and change over eight years Malcolm P. Taylor
- 120 Audit of work at a medical centre for the homeless over one year
P.D. Toon, K. Thomas and M. Doherty

Short report

- 123 Use of the objective structured clinical examination for assessment of vocational trainees for general practice
Robert Walker and Barrie Walker

For debate

- 125 Experimentation: the next step Marshall Marinker

129 Letters

135 Primary care bookshelf

137 News

144 Classified advertisements and notices

