

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Editorials

- 289 AIDS, HIV and general practice
 290 To burn out or to rust out in general practice T.C. O'Dowd
 291 The dying child at home Roger Burne

William Pickles Lecture 1987

- 292 The professionals Michael McKendrick

Original papers

- 296 Hay fever treatments — which should be tried first?
M.F. D'Souza, M. Tooley and J.R.H. Charlton
 301 A study of telephone advice in managing out-of-hours calls
G.N. Marsh, R.A. Horne and D.M. Channing
 305 Introducing a drug formulary to general practice — effects on practice prescribing costs P.H.G. Beardon, S.V. Brown, D.A.E. Mowat, J.A. Grant and D.G. McDevitt
 308 Can rational prescribing be assessed? *T.D. van Zwanenberg,
 G.B. Grant and D.A. Gregory*
 311 A survey of lay and professional interest in self-care
Maria Bremer Schulte and Ann Richardson

Case report

- 314 Acute anal pain and a chicken bone Nick Carr

College examination

- 315 The MRCGP examination
 316 Straight from the horse's mouth Janet Heyes

318 Letters

325 Primary care bookshelf

327 News

336 Classified advertisements and notices

