

The Journal of The Royal College of General Practitioners

Editorials

McConaghey memorial lecture 1988

Original papers

Discussion paper

- 225 Advertising unleashed Mike Pringle
- 226 Community hospitals — time to come off the fence
James A. Grant
- 228 The emergence of the discipline of general practice, its literature, and the contribution of the College Journal
Denis Pereira Gray
- 234 HIV infection and Scottish general practice: workload and current practice Simon A. Naji, Ian T. Russell, Christopher J.W. Foy, Morris Gallagher, Tim J. Rhodes and Michele P. Moore
- 239 Nocturnal asthma: a study in general practice
Margaret Turner-Warwick
- 244 Randomized controlled trial of an educational booklet for patients presenting with back pain in general practice Martin Roland and Marion Dixon
- 247 Teenagers' health concerns: implications for primary health care professionals Ronald Epstein, Peter Rice and Paul Wallace
- 250 Survey of practice annual reports Andrew Wilson, Sue Jones and T.C. O'Dowd
- 253 Indigestion or infection? Unusual presentations of malaria in general practice R.C. Fleetcroft
- 254 Asthma — still a challenge for general practice Kevin Jones
- 257 Letters
- 265 Book and video review
- 267 Digest
- 268 Classified advertisements and notices

