

The British Journal of General Practice

Editorials

Original papers

Discussion paper

- 1 In the Journal this month
- 2 The new general practitioner? Nigel Stott
- 3 Does lipid-lowering therapy promote regression of coronary atheroma?
G C Leng and F G R Fowkes
- 5 Evaluation of an easy, cost-effective strategy for cutting benzodiazepine use in general practice Margaret A Cormack, Kieran G Sweeney, Helen Hughes-Jones and George A Foot
- 9 Integrated care for patients with asthma: views of general practitioners
Rob van Damme, Neil Drummond, Jim Beattie and Graham Douglas
- 15 Practice nurses: characteristics, workload and training needs
Fiona M Ross, Peter J Bower and Bonnie S Sibbald
- 19 Effectiveness and cost of different strategies for information feedback in general practice Ala Szczepura, John Wilmot, Carol Davies and Joy Fletcher
- 25 Musculoskeletal clinic in general practice: study of one year's referrals
David Peters, Peter Davies and Patrick Pietroni
- 30 Detecting patients with alzheimers disease suitable for drug treatment:
comparison of three methods of assessment G K Wilcock, D L Ashworth, J A Langfield and P M Smith
- 34 Experiences of first wave general practice fundholders in South East Thames Regional Health Authority Roslyn Corney
- 38 The fundholding fandango Cameron Bowie and Tom Harris
- 41 Information for authors and readers
- 42 Letters
- 46 Book and video review
- 48 Classified advertisements

RCGP Connection pull-out magazine included for members

